

Jesus,
teacher and healer

Lesson 5

Jesus heals a blind man

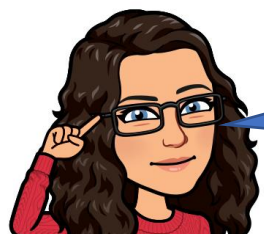

Think back...

What did we learn about last time? Jesus performed a miracle. Can you remember what he did?

Clue – there was a man called Jairus and he had a daughter.

How did the girl's parents and the disciples react? Do you think they were surprised?

In today's Bible story, we will hear about a blind man.

Think...

What would miss the most if you couldn't see?

What things would be really tricky to do if you couldn't see?

Time for some deep thinking....

How did Jesus change the man's life?

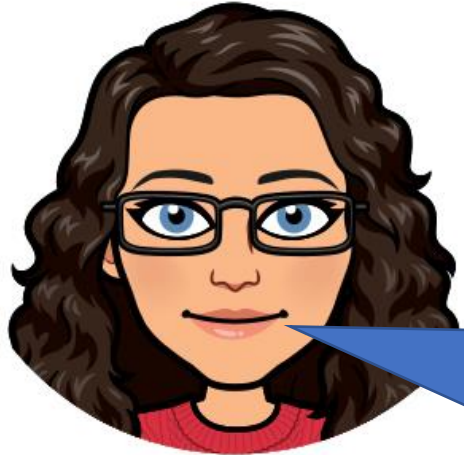

Jesus changed the man's life because.....

What can we learn about trusting Jesus from this story?

We can learn that....

What do we learn about Jesus from this story?

We learn that Jesus...

Now, complete one of the tasks on then next slides.

Task 1: Fill in the speech bubbles with words that the blind man might have said before he was healed and after he was healed.

Task 2: Put these pictures in the correct order (you can just point to them or print and cut them out). Then, use them to retell the story in your own words.

Jesus helped the blind man to see. How could Jesus help you?
