

Thursday 28th January Handwriting

Use the sheet on the next page to practise your joined up handwriting.

Top tip: Remember your flicks on the letters

If you can't print the sheet just copy the words onto paper. Ask an adult to draw some lines to help you 😊

Card 9 - Lighting a Fire

Only light a fire if it is safe to do so and with an adult. Never light a fire in a dry forest.

Instructions

1. Cotton wool acts as good tinder (it lights from a spark).

Place a ball of cotton wool onto a hard, dry surface.

2. Hold the metal rod close to the tinder, and quickly push the striker down the rod to create sparks. You will need lots of tries to get this right. Make sure you have water to hand.

3. Once the tinder is lit, gradually add your kindling (thin sticks) to keep the fire going.

4. Using a long fork or a long stick, toast your marshmallow over the fire. Eat and enjoy!

You will need:

- Cotton wool
- Flint & steel
- Thin sticks
- Marshmallows
- Water

Spelling

Focus Word unhappy unwell unpick unfold unlucky

These are your spellings for this week.
Each day, I will give you a new activity to help you to practise 😊
There are only 5 spellings for this week.

Spelling pattern:

This week, we are looking at the prefix 'un'.

- A prefix is a letter or letters added to the start of a word to change its meaning.
- 'Un' means 'not'. When added (as a prefix) it will give the word the opposite meaning.

For example:

unhappy This is the opposite of happy. It means that you are not feeling happy about something.

Across and Down

Write your words across and down, sharing the same first letter.

Example x a m p l e

My silly example:
It is unlucky that I have to practise my spellings.
It can sometimes make me feel very unwell and unhappy.
