

Dear Anna,

One early morning I went to the tomb with my friends. When I got there the huge stone had been rolled and Jesus's body had gone. I was shocked and sad.

Then I saw an angel; the angel said Jesus had risen from the dead.

I was sad again, suddenly I saw a man it was Jesus. He told me to tell everyone the good news. After that, I went to people but they did not believe me.

Finally they saw Jesus and they believed me.

Love

Mary
