

Hello Year 3,

How are you all doing this week? I hope you have all had a brilliant week ☺. I cannot believe that we have arrived at the last week of term! I am feeling very sad that we can't all enjoy the last week together in school. However, I am also feeling incredibly proud of how hard you have all worked at home or in school. This term hasn't been easy for any of us but you should all be so proud of how you have adapted and coped with all of the changes ☺. You are superstars!

It's been lovely to hear that lots of you have been meeting up with each other more and more ☺. It also made me really happy to hear that lots of you have been able to start your football training again. How brilliant! Slowly, things are beginning to return to 'normal'. Let's keep our fingers crossed! ☺

As next week is the last week of term, the home learning is slightly different. I have included some Maths and English activities for you to complete if you would like to. However, I know that a lot of you may be feeling tired and bored of home learning now so I have also included some other activities that you might like to complete instead of or as well as. Well done to those of you that completed some of the transition activities that were sent out last week. If you haven't had chance yet, why not give some of them a try this week? They will give you the chance to reflect on the year and start preparing for Year 4.

I've really enjoyed reading your lovely emails and seeing some of your wonderful work this week. Take a look at some of the fantastic work below:

Sofia's super RE work
☺ and brilliant writing
in pen!

Arianna's amazing
Starry Night picture.
Well done!

What an amazing
piece of artwork
Thomas. ☺

Fantastic Maths work, Nancy ☺

A huge thank you to you all for working so hard. I am so proud of each and every one of you ☺.

Please continue to send in any work/ emails/ questions you might have about Year 4 to info@st-jo-st.dudley.sch.uk . It really does brighten up my day to hear from you all ☺.

I hope you all have a lovely week! The countdown to the summer holidays is on ☺. Keep an eye out for the last letter of the year that will be coming next week.

Take care and keep smiling ☺
Lots of love,
Miss Robertson xxxx
