In Part 1, we will be choosing a train sound to add to our sentence. Click on the video lesson for today and complete the activity. <https://youtu.be/5rD82rZYROY>

Here's my example:

The Queen could hear the clattering of the tube.

Use an train sound such as:
rattling, screeching, trundling,
zooming

Do you know what a tube sounds like? Click here to find out.

In Part 2, we will describe the guards in the tube. Click on the video lesson for today and complete the activity. <https://youtu.be/vkrVBraveMk>

Here's my example:

The guards tried to help but they were trampled and flattened.

Choose a word to describe how the guards were feeling, such as:
squashed, squeezed, pushed and pulled

In Part 3, we will ask a question (as if we were the Queen). Click on the video lesson for today and complete the activity. <https://youtu.be/SYWJIbcceVw>

Here's my example:

The Queen wondered, 'Where is my hat?'

What is the Queen wondering?
Write a question, such as:
Will I find my hat? How will we get it back?

Remember your question mark.
