

FALL into a new book this autumn

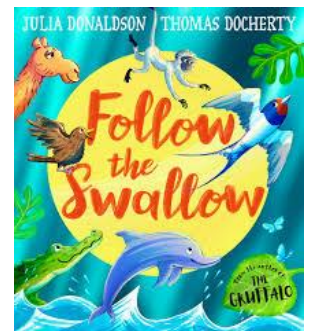

Picture Book Recommendations

Judy is no ordinary dog — she's the mascot of HMS Grasshopper. From catching rats and keeping watch for danger to comforting the crew during difficult times, Judy takes her duties seriously and is loved by everyone on board. But when disaster strikes and the soldiers are taken prisoner, Judy is separated from her beloved friend, Frank. Alone and far from home, she must summon every ounce of courage and loyalty to survive — and to help bring her crew hope once more.

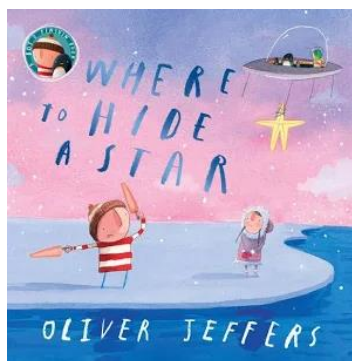

A remarkable true story of friendship, bravery, and the unbreakable bond between a dog and her human Chack the blackbird and Apollo the swallow are friends. But when Apollo tells Chack that he will soon be flying to Africa – Chack doesn't believe him. Then, when Chack tells Apollo that the blossom on his favourite tree will one day turn into orange berries – Apollo doesn't believe him either! But as the seasons change, Chack and Apollo are both in for a big surprise ... A fabulous new picture book from Julia Donaldson that is perfect for children of all ages!

The boy loved playing hide-and-seek with his friends – the star and the penguin. The star was always easy to find... until one day, it disappeared! With help from the Martian, the boy blasts off on a daring rescue mission to the North Pole, where he discovers he isn't the only one who's always dreamed of having a star for a friend.

The long-awaited sequel to the much-loved Boy stories is here – a heartwarming, out-of-this-world tale introducing a brand-new character!

Mushroom is having the worst day EVER. First, he's not picked to go on the pizza (and Pineapple is chosen instead of him - can you BELIEVE it?! PINEAPPLE!). Then, Milk spills all over him. And then he's thrown in the compost bin. The indignity!
I know exactly what you're thinking . . . it's time to build a mushroom army and take revenge!

A laugh-out-loud picture book with the message that revenge never pays.
